

Tasting Notes (Nov 2018) by Neal Martin

Posted on November 14, 2018 News Source Posted in Domaine Bitouzet-Prieur

2015 Domaine Bitouzet-Prieur Meursault Les Charmes 1er Cru

The 2015 Meursault Les Charmes 1er Cru sports very slight reduction on the nose, but the terroir comes through: fine definition, scents of crushed stone and a little walnut, a subtle marine influence in the background. The palate is well defined with a crisp bead of acidity, saline in the mouth, with a pinch of lemongrass toward the finish. Very fine. There is good winemaking here, but it needs three or four more years. Tasted blind at the annual Burgfest tasting.

— Neal Martin 93 || Drink 2019 – 2036

2015 Domaine Bitouzet-Prieur Meursault Les Perrières 1er Cru

The 2015 Meursault Les Perrières 1er Cru has a very sophisticated, understated bouquet that is beautifully defined, with great focus and real mineralité flooding through with aeration. The succinct palate offers lip-smacking salinity, just the right amount of reduction and outstanding concentration toward the curry-leaf-tinged finish. A fabulous Les Perrières. Tasted blind at the annual Burgfest tasting.

— Neal Martin 94 || Drink 2020 – 2038