

WINE ENTHUSIAST

December 2019

93points Domaine Edmond Cornu et Fils 2016 Les Valozières Premier Cru (Aloxe-Corton)

This rich, smoky wine has layers of wood aging and tannins that give it a dry core. The black fruits and acidity surround this core promise some good aging. Drink from 2022.

91points Domaine Edmond Cornu et Fils 2016 Les Carrières (Ladoix)

This is a ripe, smoothly textured wine. With generous red-berry fruits and touches of wood, it is packed with juicy flavors and a succulent texture. Drink from 2021.

88points Domaine Edmond Cornu et Fils 2016 Bois Rousot Premier Cru (Ladoix)

While this wine has earthy aromas, the flavors are pure, bright with red berries and acidity. The structure reveals a wine that will need some aging, so drink from 2022.
